Circ.: ApproVed5#3r Release 2001/03/02 : CIA-RDP70-00058R060109120089-0

Front Page

Edit Page

Other Page

Date:

CPYRGHT

Reds Sow Seeds of Destruction

Spy Chief Sees Red Discord

Soviet dictatorship may be sowing the seeds of its own destruction, according to U.S. spy chief Allen W. Dulles.

The director of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency said at a UC Day observance Friday night in Hotel Sheraton-Gibson that the Soviet emphasis on industry, technology and education may eventually wreck its dictatorship.

MR. DULLES, brother of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, predicted that Georgi Malenkov, former Soviet premier, "may be coming back again to a position of greater influence" in the Kremlin.

He indicated that the re turn of Malenkov might be linked with an increased emphasis upon consumer, rather than military products.

But, he said, Americans should realize that "the Soviets can achieve any particular objective we can achieve" in the atomic, aircraft and other technical-industrial fields.

ance of its co-operative system of a such and its co-operative system of a such and its danger of attack from Russia, Mr. Dulles said, and explained that attack would come only if U.S. defenses or retaliatory power were weakened, or by Soviet confidence born of "industrial parity with the U.S.A."

Mr. Dulles pointed out that Soviet production of machine tools now exceptioned to solve the solve of the regional science award tools now exceptioned to the regional science award to the region of th late danger of attack from Russia, Mr. Dulles said, and explained that attack would come only if U.S. defenses or retaliatory power were weakened, or by Soviet con-

KEY TO THE CITY was presented to Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, Friday night before he addressed the twenty-second University of Cincinnati Day dinner at Hotel Sheraton-Gibson. The affair was in connection with the fiftieth anniversary of UC's co-op system. Mayor Charles P. Taft presented the key. In center are Dr. Walter C. Langsam, UC president, and Mrs. Langsam.

CPYRGHT

United States, but said their use of these tools for consumer goods lags considerably.

Two alumni received the UC Alumni Association's new Uc Alumni Alumni Association's new Uc Alumni Association's new Uc Alumni Alumni Association's new Uc Alumni Association's new Alumni ance of its co-operative sys- first prizes to Jane Himmelmann. 3419 with the observance of the co-op system's fiftieth anniversary, were announced in Wilson Auditorium. They are:

PHYSICS — Two $1,000 scholarship) first prizes to Judy Wesselman, 5873 Karen ave., and Rose Marie Behrens. 3743 St. Martins pl., both Mother of Mercy High School, twelfth grade: $1,000 scholarship second prize, Fred Campbell, 1129 Ross ave., Hamilton, O. Hamilton High School, twelfth grade: $500 scholarship third prize, Douglas Penny, 3930 Mary Knoll dr., Dayton, O., Dayton Fairmount High School, twelfth grade.

Approved For Release 2001/03/02 : CIA-RDP70-00058R000100120089-0 CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

western Ohio Science Awards Competition at UC. Winners of scholarships were, left to right, Eva Jan Kartye, 3910 Harding ave.; Jane Himmelmann, 3419 Ferneroft Drive; Kent Hodgetts, 5741 Marmion Lane; Brenda Baumgartner, 3543 Epworth ave., and Geraldine Kathman, 4005 St. Martins Place. Miss Himmelmann and Miss Baumgartner, split first prize. Second prize was split by Miss Kartye and Miss Kathman, all are from Mother of Mercy High School. Mr. Hodgetts won third prize.

Recipients of the UC Alumni Association's first presentation of distinguished alumnus awards were announced at the UC Day dinner Friday night. They were H. Jerome Berns, right, co-owner of New York's famous 21 Club, and Probate Judge Chase M. Davies, center. The awards were presented by Walter E. M. Fielman, right, association president.